DUNCAN IS DISMISSED

Board of Safety Declines to Accept Resignation

A Big Sensation Promised at Louisville—Railroad Cases Compromised.

DEATHS IN OLD KENTUCKY

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 24.—The board of public safety today declined to accept the resignation of Dr. Ellis Duncan, superintendent of the city hospital, and dismissed him summarily. Dr. George B. Jenkins was placed in charge temporarily.

Miss Alice Gagg, superintendent of the hospital training school, has been removed without a hearing and without charges having been made against her. The biggest kind of a sensation is promised as a fight has been on some time between the board of safety and the management of the hospital.

CASES COMPROMISED.

Frankfort, Sept. 24.—The suits of the state to recover reorganization tax were compromised by the Southern railway, the Mobile and Ohio, the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis and Tennessee Central. They pay the tax and five per cent of the judgment in advance, as a penalty.

DEATHS IN THE STATE.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 24.—Mr. Gilbar Cassidy, one of the leading criminal lawyer's of Northeastern Kentucky, died suddenly of apoplexy at his home near Flemingsburg.

While en route from Flattsburg, Mo., to visit her daughter at Elizabethtown, Ky., Mrs. Jemima Thomas died suddenly in the passenger depot at Guthrie, Ky.

Johnnie Poe Shot With Flobert Rifle.

He Was Taking the Weapon From a Rack When It Was Discharged.

STRUCK IN THE HEAD

Johnnie Poe, age 13 years, adopted son of Farmer John Woods who lives about a mile and a half from Palestine church on the Metropolis gravel road, shot himself through the head last night accidentally and will probably die.

The little fellow was taking a flobert rifle from a rack when it was accidentally discharged, the ball piercing the temple and lodging in the head. Dr. Holland, of Grahamville, was summoned and worked with the boy the greater part of the night but thinks the wound will prove fatal.

The unfortunate youth lived here for a time and has a blind sister in the Home of the Friendless. His parents are both dead and the sister is the only living near relative.

DICK POORE BETTER. — The condition of Richard Poore today is much better. He passed a good night last night and was much improved today. The knife wounds will be redressed this afternoon.

THE TICKET NAMED

Republican Mass Convention Held This Afternoon.

Mr. Jeff J. Read Is Nominated for Mayor of the City of Paducah.

A LARGE CROWD PRESENT

The Republican mass convention at the city hall this afternoon to nominate candidates for municipal office was one of the largest ever held in Paducah.

L. L. Bebout was made chairman and C. W. Merriweather secretary.

A committee on rules and order reported in favor of making nominations for various offices from mayor to assessor first, and leave the boards nominees to be made later by committee, subject to the action of the convention.

Messrs. Oscar Stark, Jeff J. Read and Sam Houston were nominated for mayor. Mr. Stark withdrew, and upon a vote being taken, Mr. Read was chosen as the nominee for mayor and the nomination was made unanimous.

No other nomination had been made at press time.

A telegram from London, Ky., states that D. C. Edwards has decided to be come a candidate for Congress in the Eleventh district for the unexpired term of the late Vincent Boreing. He is a member of the Republican state Campaign Committee. W. R. Black, of Knox county, and H. C. Cole, Mayor of Barbourville, are also mentioned for the place. Judge H. C. Faulkner, another prominent Knox county man, is under pressure to become a candidate.

The Democratic city committee, of Paducah, meets this evening at Chairman Caldwell's office to take up the contest of Mr. J. Henry Smith against Mr. M. W. Johnson for the Democratic nomination for city treasurer. It is understood the committee can decline to grant a contest if it deems the allegations insufficient or unreasonable, and there is talk of overruling the motion for a contest.

Mr. N. M. Uri, present member of the Board of Aldermen, at Louisville, and formerly of Paducah, has declined to offer for re-election, though strongly urged to become a candidate for Park Commissioner.

The Republicans of Louisville have arranged for a rally to take place on the night of October 5 at the Auditorium.

THE FATHER WON.

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS DECEIDED THIS MORNING.

A writ of habeas corpus for the custody of Clair Browning, aged 6 years, was decided in favor of the father, Sol Browning, by Circuit Judge L. D. Husbands this morning. It seems that the father and mother, Ida Browning, separated some time ago, and the child was being cared for by its grandmother, at Greenville, Ky.

It came down to Paducah on a visit to its father, and the mother who also lives here sent and asked that it be allowed to visit her, and the child was sent. She then wanted to keep it and the writ of habeas corpus was to decide which was to have legal custody of it, the father being victorious. Bagby & Martin represented the father and Moss & Moss the mother.

HEDGES HOME.

MADE A GOOD SHOWING FOR THE FIRST YEAR.

Alonzo Hedges, the Paducah twirler, has returned home from Milwaukee where he pitched the latter part of the season in the American Association. He won seven out of twelve games and had an enviable record for an amateur who is a "first year out" man. He has been reserved, he says, for next season. Both Milwaukee and St. Louis want him but Milwaukee has the pinch and will retain him.

LOCAL MARRIAGES. IT IS A SURE GO

Mr. Clarence Wright and Miss Katie Hedges to Wed.

Well Known Young People Married in Paducah Last Evening.

The marriage of Miss Katie Hedges of this city and Mr. Clarence Wright, formerly of this city and now of Louisville, is announced to take place October 14.

Miss Hedges is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hedges of South Sixth street and is an attractive young lady. Mr. Wright is a messenger for the American Express company, running between Louisville and Fulton. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Wright of North Fourth street, and is popular in Paducah, which is his native home. The couple will reside in Louisville.

Mr. Charles W. Mitchell, mate on the steamer Woolfolk which is now doing transfer work for the I. C. railroad, and Miss Augusta Littlejohn, were at 7:30 last night married at the First Christian church, Rev. W. H. Pinkerton officiating. Both are popular residents of the city and they have many friends to extend congratulations. The ceremony was attended by several friends of the couple.

Miss Ethel Maxwell, a stenographer in the office of Oliver & Oliver of this city, and Mr. John F. Loftus, a popular young machinist of Henderson, were married this afternoon.

The bride is an attractive young lady with many friends, who wish her much happiness.

A FOOT MASHED.—J. E. Smith, a blacksmith employed in the local I. C. shops, accidentally let a hot piece of iron fall on a foot this morning and mashed the member badly. The injury was dressed at the hospital.

Paducah Amateurs to Challenge the World.

The Match Will Be at Live Birds on October 19.

Members of the Paducah Gun club today announce that the arrangements have been completed for a match shoot October 19, in Paducah at the club grounds at Wallace park, between two members of the Paducah club to be selected later on, and any two other amateurs in the world. The challenge has been issued through the sporting papers, and it is expected that in a few days answers will begin to come in.

The match will be at 100 live birds for a purse of $100 a man, or $400 in all, and will doubtless prove of unusual interest. The members of the local club who are to shoot against all comers have not been selected, but the Messrs. Starr are the most favorably mentioned.

ALL A FAKE

NO BODIES TOUCHED IN COUNTY GRAVEYARD.

Undertaker M. Nance today made a trip to the county graveyard south of the city, to investigate the report that bodies of paupers were buried in such shallow graves that the hogs were rooting them up. He found that there was absolutely nothing in the report. Not a grave was touched, and he took along an iron rod and sounder, finding that the coffins were all properly buried. A resident of the neighborhood when asked stated that nothing was known of it there, except that one night some one buried a cigar box near the road, and the dogs scratched it up and made way with the contents, whatever it contained.

EXPRESS COMPANY EMPLOYE SUICIDES

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 24.—William S. Mills, money order clerk in the local office of the Southern Express company, was found dead last night in a room in the Waggoner hotel with an empty morphine bottle by his side. Mills appeared at his desk Tuesday morning as usual and a little later a traveling auditor of the company came in unexpectedly to check up the books. Mills almost immediately complained of indisposition and left the office, since which time he had been missing. Investigation of his books has revealed a shortage of something less than $200. He had been a trusted employee of the Southern Express company here for more than twenty years.

A GREENHORN POSTMASTER.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 24.—Andrew S. Wallace was until a few weeks ago postmaster at Opp, Ala. While serving as Uncle Sams' agent in that capacity Mr. Wallace read in the papers of the bribery that was going on in the postoffice department at Washington, and he forthwith proceeded to write to Postmaster General Payne and offered him the sum of $50 if Mr. Payne would have him appointed postmaster at Andalusia, Ala. This was a better office than the one held by Mr. Wallace. He has been removed from the office at Opp and placed under a bond of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the United States court at Birmingham.

STATE SENATOR FINED.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 24.—In criminal court State Senator J. Walter Peak was found guilty of assault and battery and fined $200. Senator Peak was indicted for felonious assault on the person of William Dowling last April. Mr. Dowling was sitting in a drug store when Mr. Peak came up behind him and hit him several times about the head and shoulders with a heavy stick, causing injuries which kept him in bed for some weeks. The cause of the affair was a published card, signed by Mr. Dowling, in which he compared him to Judas Iscariot for his action in defeating a bill authorizing this city to issue bonds in the sum of $700,000 for the purpose of building a waterworks plant.

FIRE AT DYERSBURG.

Dyersburg, Tenn., Sept. 24.—The residence of Mrs. Montie Foster near the college in this city, was destroyed by fire. The contents of the house also were consumed with the building. Miss Maizy Foster came near being hemmed in by the flames in her room upstairs, where she was sleeping, and escaped with difficulty. The property destroyed was worth $3,000 and carried insurance of $2,000.

A KILLING IN ARKANSAS

BLACKMAILED TO DEATH.

New York, Sept. 24.—"I send you herewith $300. This is positively the last money I will send you. I will not let you blackmail me any longer."

This, together with the torn fragments of a check, is said to be the text of a letter which has been pieced together from bits discovered in the apartments where John D. Kilpatrick, wealthy son of the late David Kilpatrick, of Beatrice, Neb., was found Monday shot through the heart. The case had begun to look like one of murder but it is now thought that the first theory—suicide—is correct, and that Kilpatrick killed himself to escape his tormentor.

J. E. Lambrie, stepfather of the dead man, declared that sensational developments may grow out of the affair. He is quoted as saying: "We know the woman to whom the letter was addressed. She is a young married woman, the mere mention of whose name would cause a sensation in New York city, as she is known as a member of one of the most prominent social sets in the city. We know enough now to convince us that my stepson committed suicide."

"I have learned since that he wrote another letter and another check, and sent them to the woman. I do not know the contents of the other letter."

OIL FIELDS BLAZE.

Beaumont, Tex., Sept. 24.—A fire broke out in the Shoestring district of the Sour Lake oil field, and raged for three hours before it was brought under control. For a time the entire field was threatened, the burning pipes and tanks, with the dense volumes of smoke, making the scene one of wild excitement.

Twenty derricks were destroyed, together with pumping and drilling machinery. No reliable estimates at this time can be placed on the loss, but it will aggregate many thousands of dollars.

Following is a list of the heaviest losses:

The Jackson-Tobin Oil company, Bettie Bryan, Sinclair, Quay, Beck, R. L. Cox, W. B. Sharpe, W. S. Brick, Davy Crockett Oil company and the Texas company.

TRAGEDY IN ARKANSAS.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 24.—Thomas Linton, aged 55 years, shot and killed his wife near Hector, Pope county, with a double-barrel shotgun. The couple had been married 35 years and had seven children. Linton was drinking and came into the house where his wife was lying on the bed, and after sitting on the side of the bed and talking to her for a short time, went into another room and got a shotgun. When his wife asked him what he was going to do with the gun and told him to put it up, he told her he had the gun to kill her and that he was then going to take her life, and then shot her twice. Jealousy was the cause of the tragedy.

COOLER WEATH. R.

QUITE A CHANGE IN THE TEMPERATURE IN THIS SECTION.

The indications are for cooler weather tonight and tomorrow, with a light frost tonight.

INVADE NICARAUGUA

The Soldiers of Spanish Honduras Threatening.

Mrs Maybrick Will Be Rich When Released From Prison.

THE EXPEDITION SAFE

TO INVADE NICARAUGUA.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 24—Advices of the expected invasion of the Nicaraguan republic by soldiers from Spanish Honduras to enforce that country's contention that Nicaragua, in giving a concession to a Pittsburg, Pa. syndicate, granted rights on territory which belonged to Honduras, reached this city via the American steamship Breakwater from Puerto Cortes, Spanish Honduras. Last month a commission headed by General Ordonez was sent by President Bonilla of Spanish Honduras to Cape Gracias to notify the collector of the port there that if the Nicaraguan republic did not recognize certain rights claimed by Honduras along the Wanks river, separating Honduras and Nicaragua, that war would be proclaimed by President Bonilla.

The customs officials and military authorities at Cape Gracias lacked the authority to act in accordance with Honduras' request, so General Ordonez and his colleagues returned to Tegucigalpa, warning the Nicaraguans to be on the lookout for an invasion, provided the Hondurians' rights were not respected. President Zelaya, on being notified, immediately garrisoned Cape Gracias. Unless an amicable settlement of the boundary dispute is effected there is a strong probability that war will be declared.

MRS. MAYBRICK'S FORTUNE.

New York, Sept. 24—According to the statement of her lawyer, Daniel S. Decker, Mrs. Florence Maybrick, when she comes out of prison in England, will enter heir to about $7,000,000. While her mother, the Baroness de Roques, lives, Mrs. Maybrick will be dependent on her bounty, as the estate must be held together; but on her death it will become the property outright of Mrs. Maybrick.

The hearing that was to have been held today before Referee John H. Judge, at No. 29 Broadway, was postponed until October 6, to ask an accounting of the two trustees of her grandmother's estate.

Darius Blake Holbrook was associated with Cyrus Field in the laying of the trans-Atlantic cable, and when he died was one of the richest men in the south. He left his entire fortune to his daughter, who married Wm. H. Chandler with the reversionary interest to her daughter, who married James Maybrick of Norfolk, Va., and Liverpool, England.

For the alleged murder of her husband, Mrs. Maybrick was sentenced to death, which sentence was afterward commuted to imprisonment. It was announced a short time ago that Mrs. Maybrick would be released from prison in 1904.

SALE OF GRANT HOMESTEAD.

Galena, Ill., Sept. 24—Brigadier General Frederick D. Grant, his brothers and sisters, wish to deed the Grant homestead to this city, as will be shown by the following letter to Isaac F. Moore:

It is not probable that any of my father's family will ever again live in Galena. My two brothers having located in California, where they have established homes; my sister and family being in the east and in England, and I being in the army, it is not likely that any of us children will ever go to Galena to live.

This little house, which was the home of my father and mother, is of some interest as a historic relic, and I believe would be of interest to the people of Galena. I wish you to consult the mayor of the city and let me know if it would be possible for me to deed the property to the town, which could keep it as an historic relic. You know that the citizens of Galena presented his house to my father in 1865, just after the Civil war, and he and my mother took a great deal of pride in owning this property, and we, his children, do not wish to sell it, but would like to have it preserved and have it the property of old Jo Davies county, for whom we have the warmest recollections and among whom we passed many happy days.

If you will let me hear from you on these points you will greatly oblige,

yours truly,

FREDERICK GRANT.

The city will accept the building and it probably will be converted into a hospital.

EXPEDITION IS SAFE.

Edgartown, Mass., Sept. 24—Authentic and favorable news from the Zeigler expedition, which is exploring the Arctic regions, is contained in a letter received by Mrs. Edwin Coffin, from her husband, Captain Edwin Coffin, in command of the expedition's boat, America. The letter came by way of Hammerfest, Norway, under date of July 30, and in the course of it, Captain Coffin says:

"There is a vessel right ahead, and I will send this by her to you. I came up to the ice the 14th, and have been trying to find a lead in the ice ever since. Reached the shores of Nova Zembla last night at 3 p. m. and then turned back, and will wait to push in the ice. Longitude 45.30 latitude 75.32. This is the farthest north I can get now, without going into close ice. I am well and so are all hands, even the dogs. I am afraid we won't get through until quite late, as it is a bad year for ice. I have just written a short letter to Mr. Zeigler. Everything works well on shipboard and I find the America a fine seaboat."

CARDINAL GIBBONS

Has Returned From His Trip to Rome—

He Speaks in the Highest Terms of the New Pope.

Pius X.

ANOTHER AMERICAN CARDINAL

New York, Sept. 24.—Cardinal Gibbons has arrived on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. The cardinal will remain in this city, a guest at the home of Mrs. Keiley, of Brooklyn, until Friday, when he will accompany the delegation to Baltimore.

To the Passionate Fathers the cardinal brought a special blessing from Pope Pius X, in response to the message of love and congratulation sent to the Pope by them at the time of his election.

Of the new Pontiff the cardinal spoke in terms of the greatest enthusiasm. He said that the choice of the conclave had been most happy from an American viewpoint, as Pius X, was deeply interested in the development of the church in this country and was singularly familiar with American institutions. The cardinal had several lengthy interviews with the Pope regarding church affairs in this country.

The cardinal was not inclined to discuss the probable policy of the new papal regime, but said that no radical changes in American church administration would ensue. He said that one of the first steps taken by Pius was to instruct his acting secretary of state, Mgr. Merry del Val, to provide for an extensive exhibit of the Vatican treasures at the St. Louis Exposition. He said the exhibit probably would comprise some of the magnificent jubilee gifts of the late pontiff, and a number of rare historical manuscripts and maps from the Vatican library relating to the early settlement and mission work in the Louisiana Purchase Territory, most of which was penetrated by Catholic missionaries within a quarter of a century of the discovery of the continent.

Asked about the possibility of another American cardinal being appointed, Cardinal Gibbons answered:

"There will be another cardinal. It would not surprise me to see the number of American cardinals augmented in the near future. But there is absolutely no truth in the cable statement that the Pope purposes to create a patriarchate for the Occident. The statement is ridiculous."

THE DOG AND HIS SHADOW.

Find Man from Whom Meat Was Stolen.

A dog, bearing in his mouth a piece of meat that he had stolen, was crossing a smooth stream by means of a plank. Looking in, he saw what he took to be another dog, carrying another piece of meat. Snapping greedily to get this as well, he let go of the meat that he had, and lost it in the stream.

CIGAR MEN ARE INDICTED.

ACCUSED OF SELLING BRANDS UNDER COUNTERFEIT LABELS.

Lancaster, Pa., Sept. 24.—S. R. Ross, manufacturer of cigars in Lancaster, and his factory manager, H. S. Hyder, have been indicted by the grand jury—two indictments being found against each—for manufacturing and selling cigars under counterfeit labels and trademarks, all of the brands being celebrated and used by owners of imported Havana goods.

One of the brands was "Mannet Garcia" and one was "La Carolina," both of which are the property of the Havana Commercial company. Another was "Henry Clay," belonging to the Henry Clay and Bock and company, Ltd.

CROUP.

Usually begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, the child will cry for it, and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 50c at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

RAISED FROM THE DEAD.

O. W. Landis, "Porter" for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it is to suffer with neuralgia, deed I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was 'raised from the dead.' I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposited' my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am tellin' de truth, too." 35c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

OPPOSING PROHIBITION.

FIVE HUNDRED TEXARKANA CITIZENS PREFER "THE OPEN SALOON."

Texarkana, Ark., Sept. 24.—About 500 persons, mostly voters, including practically all the business men on the Arkansas side of town, met in mass meeting at the Miller county courthouse and with only six dissenting votes adopted resolutions condemning the efforts that are being made to inaugurate a prohibition of the liquor traffic on the Arkansas side of town. One of the resolutions read:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that should the Prohibition campaign be successful, the result would prove a calamity both morally and financially, from which it would take years to recover, and that it is our fixed conviction that the open saloon under proper control is much preferable to the blind tiger in any form."

A HUMAN OSTRICH.

POSTMASTER AT MOBILE SAYS HE SAW WRIGHT EAT CARPET TACKS AND OUT GLASS.

Washington, Sept. 24.—A controversy is in progress between the members of the civil service commission and the postmaster at Mobile, Ala., concerning the identity of the "human ostrich," who heads the eligible list of the Mobile postoffice.

Some time ago the name of Lee W. Wright, "human ostrich," who heads the eligible list on complaint of Postmaster Barker, who said that Wright was fond of glass, tacks, brass watch chains, scrap iron, wire fencing, broken chain and small change as a daily diet, and that his usefulness to the government would be considerably impaired thereby. The commissioners at first agreed with Mr. Barker, but later issued a statement that a mistake had been made and that the person discriminated against was the wrong Mr. Wright.

In a letter to the commission Postmaster Barker indignantly controverts this statement, insisting that he knows a "human ostrich" when he sees one, and that the right Mr. Wright had eaten a light luncheon of carpet tacks, cut glass and piano wire in the postmaster's presence.

HOME BURNED.

MR. FOSTER THRELKELD SUSTAINED HEAVY LOSS AT TOLU.

The handsome residence of Mr. Foster Threlkeld overlooking the Ohio river at Tolu, was destroyed with all its contents by fire Monday night. The loss is about $3,000 with no insurance. Only two feather beds were saved and the family had a narrow escape with their lives. Mr. Threlkeld had just a few hours before left home for Evansville. He is a half brother of Jailer Threlkeld of this place and has many friends here. —Smithland Banner.

CITIZENS' TICKET

Mayfield, Ky., Sept. 24.—The indications are that the citizens' ticket here stands a good chance to win over the Democratic nominee in November. Early in the summer candidates were named on that ticket and among them was Mr. J. H. Boswell deceased. His place on the ticket was to be filled by another in a few days. It has been rumored that R. H. Gardner was not going to stand to be voted for at the November election as a candidate on that ticket, but so far he has not given the citizens' committee any notice to that effect.

The device has about been selected and agreed upon. It is to be a pair of scales evenly balanced which is to mean even handed justice to all.

The celebrated baritone who accompanied Mme. Patti and Albani, under the management of Abbey and Grau, will come to Paducah and sing in the concert to be given by Mrs. Scofield at the theater on the 29th of September. He is a baritone of splendid voice of rare dramatic talent, of pure artistic adaptation for every kind of music and with a repertoire which embraces all methods and schools ranging from Kerd to Wagner.

He sang for several seasons in Italy, Spain, South America, in all the principal theaters, with such artists as Patti, Albani, Melba, Frandini and Tamagno; he accompanied Mme. Patti in three of her concert tours through the United States and quite recently he achieved great success both in opera and concert in New York, Cincinnati, Philadelphia and Chicago, where both press and public applauded with enthusiasm his great impersonations of Rigoletto, Tonio in "I Pagliacci" and of Alfio in "Cavalleria Rusticana."

Signor Marescalchi will sing in Paducah selections from the grand opera, Verdi's "Otello," Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci" and "Barber of Seville" Rossini with Mrs. Scofield.

A SOCIETY QUEEN

WITH HOITY TOITY AT THE KENTUCKY MONDAY.

Elizabeth Skeer Manning said to be a niece of Daniel Manning, who was a member of President Cleveland's cabinet, will appear at the Kentucky Monday as a member of the Hoity Toity company. Miss Manning, so her management says, was a leader in Washington social circles. But in spite of her social success, Miss Manning tired of the round of gaiety, and became enamored of the stage. Her success in amateur theatricals suggested the step which led to a life entirely different to the one she had hitherto known.

TIME FOR A CHANGE.

The Democratic nominees for office in Paducah are running without a platform. Democratic officials have given the people very little in the past, and the present nominees promise nothing in the future. They simply come before the people and say, "We are Democrats, and count on you to elect us whether we are the right men for the places or not."

In the past very frequently this has been done. The men who happened to be chosen by the Democrats to run, often not the best men by any means,
who could have been put into office, were elected solely because of their politics. There is no way to determine how much such a method of choosing men for office has cost the taxpayers of Paducah. They will never know because there is no way to find out.

It is very plain, however, from the amount of money collected every year for the maintenance of Paducah another institutions, that a large per cent of the public funds have been wasted by incompetent men, because there is nothing to show for it. If we had brick or asphalt streets, more fire departments, a better light service, a modern city hospital and a respectable market house, more sanitary sewerage and other such things, the people could feel that their money had been spent to some advantage. Paducah, however, has nothing. We have all these things yet to obtain and pay for.

Our sanitary sewerage was constructed by the Republican council.
The Democratic councils for years and years refused to construct a water works system and finally left it to private capital, which has made an enviable success of it. The fire departments are good considering their equipment and the number of men employed, but there should be at least two additional stations and more men and machines. The present city hospital was built about 1875, and would be a disgrace to Brookport, Ill., while the electric light system is a joke.
The market house is too small and in addition an eyesore, and several miles of brick or asphalt streets should have been built long ago, instead of the four blocks we have now.

The lack of all these things shows the incompetency, indifference and unworthiness of past Democratic administrations. The promise is for nothing better. The question for the people to solve in November will be,
is it to their interest to longer tolerate such municipal mismanagement? Is it advisable to allow public money to be wasted and the welfare of the people longer antagonized by grafters and pie hunters who care nothing for the interests of the city or people?

We can compare Paducah with other cities of the same population, resources, advantages and opportunities, and easily see how the people here have been imposed on. As history repeats itself it is not plain how anything better can be expected hereafter, and the only sensible, sure thing to do is to make a clean sweep.

By the time this reaches the eye of the reader, the Republicans will have nominated a ticket in Paducah, and announced a platform. The Republicans are not afraid to say what they stand for, and what they will endeavor to do should they be placed in charge of municipal affairs. They have reason to feel proud of what they accomplished during the two years they were in the city council, despite the antagonism of a Democratic mayor and the mendacity, misrepresentation and hostility of the local Democratic press, and will try to do everything they say they will do, if they are elected this year.

It is probable good men will be named for all the various offices in Paducah and if they are elected, they will be men who cannot afford to do less than they promise. Later on there will be more to say, and the people will be shown additional reason why the Republican nominees and cause are worthy of the earnest consideration of the people.

Some of the Democrats are trying to argue that Colonel Belknap is not good gubernatorial timber because he completed his education at Yale. It would not be difficult to see that some of the Democrats are totally unap-preciative of the advantages of Yale—and all other educational institutions.

It is claimed the Democrats of Kentucky have already made up a state for 1907 with Judge S. W. Hager at the head for governor. They probably anticipate that four years of strenu-ousness will be necessary to make a showing in Kentucky four years hence and they are right.

A Michigan man, after being acquitted of conspiracy, will return from Mexico and plead guilty—but it is not his conscience. He will submit to a fine of $2,000 simply in order to escape the penitentiary for perjury.

Chicago labor leaders have inaugurated a movement to dispense with labor day and spend the money heretofore used for uniforms, parades and other things, as a defense fund.

child had been ill since last Thursday
but not seriously. No funeral arrange-

Bandana, who killed himself Tuesday, took place this morning from the residence, interment at Titusworth cemetery.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.

Mr. Harry O. Jacob, a railroad man

ruptcy in the office of U. S. Clerk J.
R. Puryear this morning. His liabilities are $17,000. He has no assets.

LET EVERY REPUBLICAN DO HIS DUTY

Louisville Post.

Every Republican is called on by his duty to his state and by his duty to his country to unite in this campaign for the redemption of Kentucky.

Because some of the gentlemen who a year ago were looked to as anti-Roosevelt Republicans heartily supported Colonel Belknap in his contest for the nomination, it has been hoped by the Democrats that the Roosevelt Republicans would be lukewarm in the support of the ticket. This is not to be a Roosevelt, nor an anti-Roosevelt campaign; it is a campaign which should enlist the activities of every lover of his state. Colonel Belknap is a Roosevelt Republican. Further, General Buckner is as close to the president as any man in Kentucky. Manifestly the election of Colonel Belknap could under no circumstances be considered hurtful to the purpose of the gentlemen who are anxious for the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt next year. It is to be remembered that on Colonel Belknap's insistence the platform calls for the renomination of the president.

The Evening Post can say on the highest authority to every lukewarm Republican, if there be any, that outside of the state no man feels a greater interest in the election of Colonel Belknap than does President Roosevelt. The president's hope this year is to see the Republican party lose no ground anywhere. He is not concerned in strengthening one wing or the other of the party organization, but he wants first to see his party right, and then he wants to see his party win.

The Republican party in Kentucky is right this year, altogether right, and on this account the president hopes to see a Republican victory in this state.

That much we can say to all Republicans on the high-st authority, and it could not be otherwise. Every true Republican must see that it is true from the very nature of things. The position of the president can be strengthened only by Republican victories;
he cannot be supported by Republican defeats.

The Evening Post, which is not so much a Roosevelt Republican, as it is a Roosevelt Democrat, makes its appeal to Republicans of every shade of opinion to unite in a forward march, and to enlist Democrats, Populists and all friends of good government in the election of the Republican ticket. Let who will organize victory, let who will claim the credit, let who will demand the spoils, still we are for the election of the state Republican ticket, and for the local Republican ticket, knowing that for Kentucky there is to be no peace, no justice for all men, no security for life, property or political rights until the Democratic party, as now governed and directed, is driven from the state house, the courthouse and the city hall. The foes of honest government have united in support of the Beckham ticket; let all the friends of honest government unite in support of the Belknap ticket.

EVERY OPPORTUNITY, BUT— Louisville Herald.

A Louisville evening paper that is supporting Governor Beckham's horrible purpose to make the scaffold on which Caleb Powers is sentenced to be executed serve as the political platform of the once great Democratic organization in Kentucky, says of Powers:

"He has been given every opportunity for defense known to the law."

Every opportunity? All but one.
And that one is a fair opportunity.
What chance has a man had for his life who goes up against prejudiced courts, packed juries, perjured testimony and $100,000 of blood money to purchase corruption? What chance has the innocent against the loaded dice?

He has the right of appeal and he has taken it. But he has to pay the price. And he must pay it again or be executed. Robert Emmet was executed the day after conviction because the court in its discretion would it.
Powers will be hanged on the day before Thanksgiving unless he can pay over $800 for the transcript of record in the case. It will be paid, of course.
The people of Kentucky will pay the ransom of this man's life until he can get a fair court, a fair jury and a fair trial.

There will be no judicial butchery in Kentucky if the people can prevent the same of it.

AN ARM INJURED.—Selton the six-year-old son of Mr. Elsie Baker, of 906 Broadway, was injured, fell from a tree, and sustained a severe injury to his arm, which was broken and dislocated, and is now seriously injured.

NO MURDER CASES

Will Be Tried at This Term of
Circuit Court.

Grand Jury Reports Other Indictments—Late Convictions.

IN THE OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT.

It is probable no murder cases will be tried at this term of circuit court, judging from the disposition of several which had been continued and from the disposition of the cases against George Day and Mary Thomas which were this afternoon continued by agreement.

Day is charged with murdering Calvin Cary on lower Court street a few weeks ago. The Thomas woman killed Lee Crawford a short time ago on Plankett's hill.

At press time the case against Will Mann and Kid Dovey, colored, who held up Motorman Warren on South Sixth street last winter, was being tried before Special Judge W. A. Berry who was selected by agreement by the commonwealth attorneys and Campbell and Campbell, attorneys for Mann. Special Judge James Campbell could not sit in this case on account of being employed as an attorney. These two were in with Louis Ruford, the desperado who was killed several months ago while resisting an officer at Kuttawa.

The grand jury yesterday returned the following indictments: Will Moore, housebreaking; Edmund Dyson, obtaining money by false pretenses; Will Jolly, assault and battery.
The minutes of the examining court in the following cases were returned marked dismissed: George W. Taylor, forgery. Taylor is the man who escaped from the jail here several weeks ago; Tom Roy and Bob Gray, false swearing; Katie Shaw, alias Hite, for being an accomplice to Bud
Nance in malicious shooting charge; Taylor, known as Shorty Taylor, for setting up a game.

Laura Smith, colored, who cut Mattie Springer several weeks ago, was found guilty and given three years in the penitentiary.

The grand jury returned an indictment against Earl French and Jerry Wall, for malicious shooting, the other warrant having been dismissed on account of a technicality.

Will Moore, white, was indicted for breaching into a store in Mechanics-burg and upon confession was given one year. He is the young man of the south side who had just served a term in the penitentiary for setting fire to Squire Barnett's store a few years ago, when he committed the last crime. He is considered half witted by many.

The case against Buckskin Roy Taylor, for stealing fish from a man named Rothwell and selling them as if they were his own, resulted in a verdict for the defendant. He claimed he was paid to sell the fish for another man and if they were stolen, the other man stole them.

Edmund Dyson was indicted for stealing a coat and other clothing from Coleman Byford and selling them as his own to a secondhand dealer and on confession was given a year.

Will Jolly was indicted on a charge of assault and battery by stabbing a friend with a fork over a piece of chicken.

Joe Davis, charged with robbery, and given a sentence of five years a few days ago, was granted a new trial.

Will Jolly was fined $50 and costs
for assault and battery.

James Rook was acquitted of the charge of malicious cutting.

The case of Lee Walters against J.
H. Rogers was dismissed.

John Hancock pleaded guilty to horse stealing and was given two years but the judge ordered him sent to the reform school and not to the penitentiary on account of his age, the boy not being 21 years of age.

Jesse X. Edmunds, the boy who assisted Bert Roberts in holding up several boys in Rowlandtown several weeks ago was ordered taken to the reform school and kept there until he was 21 years of age.

Earl French and Jerry Wall were arraigned for malicious shooting and the demer to the indictment sustained. The indictment was returned to the grand jury and a new one will be made out.

MANY VACCINATED.—The number of new pupils who enter the schools every year may be imagined from the fact that City Physician Robert Rivers has vaccinated about 300 since the schools opened two weeks ago. Most, if not all of these, had never been vaccinated before and in addition many other children went to the family physicians to be vaccinated. The work is not yet over, and Dr. Rivers still keeps office hours at the city hall.

MAYFIELD'S GROWTH.

IT IS PROBABLY IN THIRST, NOT POPULATION, HOWEVER.

If reports be true Mayfield is soon to have plenty of wholesale whisky houses. The pale ale venders are about all run out and now comes the wholesale whisky business. From three to five Paducah firms are soon to open up wholesale houses here, with plenty of their choice brands to be sold strictly at wholesale. There is already one or two wholesale beer houses here and with five wholesale whisky houses, the city of Mayfield will be able to supply the juice. It may be that Mayfield is growing so fast that Paducah has concluded to move all her wholesale whisky houses out here and make Paducah a retail town.—Mayfield Messenger.

MUST SERVE HIS TERM

Court of Appeals Affirms the Bitts Owens Case.

He Was Given Eight Years For Holding up a Man Here Last Winter.

WAS ONCE PARDONED.

The court of appeals at Frankfort this morning affirmed the case of Bitts Owens, of Paducah, convicted in the McCracken circuit court of highway robbery and sentenced to eight years in the Eddyville penitentiary. Judge Hobson delivered the opinion.

Owens is a well known young man of the city, who came of a good family. He drifted into bad company a few years ago, and was arrested first for breaking into Sam Goodman's saloon at Fourth and Court streets.

He was pardoned while serving a term of a year, and for a time after his return his conduct was good. While drinking one night, however, he is alleged to have held up Mark Atkinson, a "super" at the theatre near Thirteenth and Monroe streets, and secured a pocket book containing fifty cents. About the same time several others were held up in Paducah and it was alleged he was the highwayman in each instance, especially in the hold up of Mr. M. V. Cherry, the grocer, on North Fifth street, for which he was never tried.

His sentence was made heavy because of his having been convicted once before, and started in on a career of crime so soon after being pardoned.

The court of appeals also affirmed the case of Charles Barkley, from Fulton county, charged with obtaining a mock marriage license, and given one year in the penitentiary.

A Knotty Point of Law.

The French Society of Musical Composers is reported to have decided to take action against a number of grocers who are using gramophones as an advertisement in their shops. The society maintains it has the right to author's fees for the tunes played on the instruments.

Widened School Curriculum.

The constant widening of the scope of school courses is instanced by the recent introduction of classes in gardening, housework and basket making in the Hyannis (Mass.) Normal school and a course in millinery in the Boston public schools.

President Not Wealthy.

An intimate friend of the President received a letter from Mr. Roosevelt recently in which the writer says: "I am not a rich man, hardly a well-to-do man, and besides I have a large family of small children."

WHEN BABY IS COMING USE Mother's Friend

Woman's greatest dream of beauty and glory is when nature has chosen her to become a mother. Every faculty is keenly alert as she foresees the joy, ambition, success and the life-long satisfaction coming nearer, day by day, in the dear and innocent being so soon to see light, and the uncertainty whether she shall see a sweet girl or a brave boy face beside her on the pillow adds zest to her expectancy. Mother's Friend applied externally throughout pregnancy will relieve the pain of parturition, and no mother and child can fail to be healthy, hearty, strong, clear complexioned, pure blooded and cheerful in disposition, who are mutually influenced by the continued use of this great liniment, MOTHER'S FRIEND. Theatrical Notes.

The presentation of "Waifs of New York" by Miss Kate Emmett and her company at the Kentucky theater last night, was attended by a fairly large and well pleased crowd. It is a play that is not new, but is ever enjoyable, and is liked by everybody, from the gallery to the orchestra pit.

Miss Emmett was hoarse, but nevertheless made a fine impression, and her work was very good. Her support was excellent and the settings and scenery of the thrilling play were above the average. The officers of Paducah lodge of Elks occupied a box, and during the performance Miss Emmett was presented with a handsome bouquet from the Elks, bound with the Elks' colors of purple and white. It was intended to entertain Miss Emmett and her company after the performance, but owing to the fact that she was almost ill, and that they had to catch the next train, Miss Emmett was compelled to call it off.

Lillian Burkhardt, who is playing "A Strenuous Daisy" in vaudeville, tells of an amusing incident that occurred in a little village near Portland, Maine.

"A party of us were summering at this little town," said Miss Burkhardt, "and we were invited one day by a young attorney to visit the court house. When we arrived there this young man was engaged in examining some witness, and he had just told him that he must be very explicit in his answers.

"You said you drove a milk cart, didn't you," queried the young disciple of Blackstone.

"No, sir, I didn't," responded the witness.

"Don't you drive a milk cart?"

"No, sir."

"Well, what do you do, then?"

"I drive a boss."

"It is needless to say that we received no more invitations from our legal friend to pay a visit to the court house."

Richard Golden, who used to be known as Old Jed Prouty, was out walking in the suburbs of Seattle the other day, says the Chicago Journal, when he met a little fellow strutting along with all the dignity of young manhood and wearing a pair of trousers which were so long that they wrinkled perceptibly at his ankles.

"How old are you?" asked Golden, with a cheerful inclination to draw the boy into conversation.

The little chap appeared confused, hesitated, and finally replied: "Well, I ain't but 12, but my pants is marked 16."

Speaking of "pads" brings up another story. Nat Goodwin declares that last spring he had occasion to turn down a persistent street beggar and remonstrated with him on his laziness and his ragged clothes. The mendicant drew himself up stiffly and replied: "My pants may be ragged, sir; but they cover a warm heart."

Weber and Fields' marvelously beautiful production of "Hoity Toity" comes to The Kentucky next Monday night direct from a run of one solid year on Broadway. The lovers of musical comedy and burlesque of a high order, are in for a jolly good time, as "Hoity Toity" the most popular of all Weber and Fields' many successes, is just the conglomeration of hilarious and refined comedy, whistable music, gorgeous costumes, picturesque scenery and stunningly beautiful chorus girls, that a tired mortal insists on having after a characteristically American rush during the day for the almighty dollar. Seats will go on sale Saturday 10 a. m.

When Francis Wilson makes his revivals of "Erminie" and "The Little Corporal" he will be surrounded by an unusually strong supporting company. Among those who have been engaged are: Jessie Bartlett Davis, Madge Lessing, Jennie Weathersby, Marguerita Sylva, Signor Perugini and William Broderick.

Mr. Louis Spencer Daniel, the impersonator and Mr. Pallas Brown, the violinist, are at the Palmer. They give an entertainment this evening at the First Christian church. Tomorrow Evening they will appear at the opening reception at the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Lon Dale, promoter of the Heck Carnival company, who is dividing his time between Paducah and Cairo, is in the city again today.

DEVoured BY WORMS

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at D.B. Knob, Kolb and Co.

Alcohol an Ingredient of Liquid Kidney Remedy

WILLIAM ALEXANDER SUFFERED FOR FIVE YEARS ACUTE KIDNEY TROUBLE, NOW A WELL MAN.

Wm. Alexander, 820 Dayton Street, Newport, Ky., Aug. 25, 1903, writes: "Having suffered for the past five years from acute kidney trouble and in all that time did not find anything to relieve me, later I tried Kidney-Wort Tablets were recommended to me by a friend. After using two bottles of Tablets find to my satisfaction that I have been relieved of all my ills. Would gladly recommend Kidney-Wort Tablets to all who may suffer kidney trouble. It is the only medicine that has helped.

Secretly adding alcohol to a liquid kidney remedy should be a penitentiary offense as much as putting poison into a neighbor's well. Liquid remedies contain from 15 to 30 per cent. of alcohol, which keeps up the fever in the diseased kidneys. The handy shape of Kidney-Wort Tablets enables one to take the specific more frequently and more regularly. The Tablets are positive specific for all forms of kidney, bladder and urinary diseases. Has your urine, your back, your general health led you to wonder if your kidneys are sound? Write Dr. Pettigill, Burlington, Vermont. Give him your symptoms, he will advise you free.

ALICE of OLD VINCENNES
By MAURICE THOMPSON
Copyright, 1900, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

"There is absolutely nothing more to tell," she said. "All my life I have tried to remember more, but it's impossible; I can't get any further back or call up another thing. There's no use trying. It's all like a dream; probably it is one. I do have such dreams. In my sleep I can lift myself into the air just as easy and fly back to the same big white house that I seem to remember. When you told me about your home it was like something that I had often seen before. I shall be dreaming about it next."

Beverley crossed questioned her from every possible point of view. He was fascinated with the mystery, but she gave him nothing out of which the least further light could be drawn. A half breed woman, it seemed, had been her Indian foster mother, a silent, grave, watchful guardian from whom not a hint of disclosure ever fell. She was moreover a Christian woman who had received her conversion from an English speaking Protestant missionary. She prayed with Alice, thus keeping in the child's mind a perfect memory of the Lord's prayer.

"Well," said Beverley at last, "you are more of a mystery to me the longer I know you."

"Then I must grow every day more distasteful to you."

"No; I love mystery."

He went away feeling a new web of interest binding him to this inscrutable maiden whose life seemed to him at once so full of idyllic happiness and so enshrouded in tantalizing doubt. At the first opportunity he frankly questioned M. Roussillon, with no helpful result. The big Frenchman told the same meager story. The woman was dying in the time of a great epidemic which killed most of her tribe. She gave Alice to M. Roussillon, but told him not a word about her ancestry or previous life. That was all.

A wise old man when he finds himself in a blind alley no sooner touches the terminal wall than he faces about and goes back the way he came. Under like circumstances a young man must needs try to batter the wall down with his head. In Beverley's case the clash was profoundly disturbing. And now he clutched the thought that Alice was not a mere child of the woods, but a daughter of an old family of cavaliers!

With coat buttoned close against the driving wind he strode toward the fort in one of those melodramatic moods to which youth in all climes and times is subject. It was like a slap in the face when Captain Helm met him at the stockade gate and said:

"Well, sir, you are good at hiding."

"Hiding! What do you mean, Captain Helm?" he demanded, not in the mildest tone.

"I mean, sir, that I've been hunting for you for an hour and more over the whole of this town. The English and Indians are upon us, and there's no time for fooling. Where are all the men?"

Beverley comprehended the situation in a second. Helm's face was congested with excitement. Some scouts had come in with the news that Governor Hamilton, at the head of 500 or 600 soldiers and Indians, was only three or four miles up the river.

"Where are all the men?" Helm repeated.

"Buffalo hunting, most of them," said Beverley.

"What in thunder are they off hunting buffaloes for?" raged the excited captain.

"You might go to thunder and see," Beverley said, and they both laughed in sheer masculine contempt of a predicament too grave for anything but grim mirth.

What could they do? Even Uncle Jason and Rene de Ronville were off with the hunters. Helm sent for M. Roussillon in the desperate hope that he could suggest something, but he lost his head and hustled off to hide his money and valuables. Indeed the French people all felt that, so far as they were concerned, the chief thing was to save what they had. They well knew that it mattered little which of the two masters held over them—they must shift for themselves. In their hearts they were true to France and America; but France and America could not now protect them against Hamilton, therefore it would be like suicide to magnify patriotism or any other sentiment objectionable to the English. So they acted upon M. Roussillon's advice and offered no resistance when the new army approached.

"My poor people are not disloyal to your flag and your cause," said good Father Beret next morning to Captain Helm, "but they are powerless. Winter is upon us. What would you have us do? This rickety fort is not available for defense. The men are nearly all far away on the plains. Isn't it the part of prudence and common sense to make the best of a desperate situation? Should we resist, the British and their savage allies would destroy the town and commit outrages too horrible to think about. In this case diplomacy promises much more than a hopeless fight against an overwhelming force."

"I'll fight 'em," Helm ground out between his teeth, "if I have to do it single handed and alone! I'll fight 'em!"

Father Beret smiled grimly, as if he, too, would enjoy a lively skirmish, and said:

"I admire your courage, my son. Fighting is perfectly proper upon fair occasion. But think of the poor women and children. These old eyes of mine have seen some terrible things done by enraged savages. Men can do fighting, but their poor wives and daughters—ah, I have seen, I have seen!"

Beverley felt a pang of terror shoot through his heart as Father Beret's simple words made him think of Alice in connection with the Indian massacre.

"Of course, of course it's horrible to think of," said Helm, "but my duty is clear, and that flag"—he pointed to where la banniere d'Alice Roussillon was almost blowing away in the cold wind—"that flag shall not come down save in full honor."

His speech sounded preposterously boastful and hollow, but he was manfully in earnest. Every word came from his brave heart.

Father Beret's grim smile returned, lighting up his strongly marked face with the strangest expression imaginable.

"We will get all the women inside the fort," Helm began to say.

"Where the Indians will find them ready penned up and at their mercy," quickly interpolated the priest. "That will not do."

"Well, then, what can be done?" Beverley demanded, turning with a fierce stare upon Father Beret. "Don't stand there objecting to everything, with not a suggestion of your own to offer."

"I know what is best for my people," the old man replied softly, still smiling. "I have advised them to stay inside their houses and take no part in the military event. It is the only hope of averting an indiscriminate massacre and things worse."

The curt phrase, "things worse," went like a bullet streak through Beverley's heart. It flashed an awful picture upon his vision. Father Beret saw his face whiten and his lips set themselves to resist a great emotion.

"Do not be angry with me, my son," he said, laying a hand on the young man's arm. "I may be wrong, but I act upon long and convincing experience."

"Experience or no experience," Helm exclaimed, with an oath, "this fort must be manned and defended. I am commanding here!"

"Yes, I recognize your authority," responded the priest in a firm yet deferential tone, "and I heartily wish you had a garrison. But where is your command, Captain Helm?"

"Where is my garrison, you ask? Yes, and I can tell you. It's where you might expect a gang of dad blasted jabbering French good for nothings to be, off high gannicking around shooting buffaloes instead of staying here and defending their wives, children, homes and country! The few I have in the fort will sneak off, I suppose."

"The French gave you this post on easy terms, captain," blandly retorted Father Beret.

"Yes, and they'll hand it over to Hamilton, you think, on the same basis," cried Helm, "but I'll show you! I'll show you, Mr. Priest!"

"Pardon me, captain. The French are loyal to you and to the flag yonder. They have sworn it. Time will prove it. But in the present desperate dilemma we must choose the safer horn."

Saying this Father Beret turned about and went his way. He was chuckling heartily as he passed out of the gate.

"He is right," said Beverley after a few moments of reflection, during which he was wholly occupied with Alice, whose terrified face in his anticipation appealed to him from the midst of howling savages, smoking cabins and mangled victims of lust and massacre. His imagination painted the scene with a merciless realism that chilled his blood. All the sweet romance fell away from Vincennes.

French Lick and West Baden Springs

In the highlands of Indiana—a two hour ride from Louisville there flow wonderful healing waters, that you'd spend hundreds of dollars to enjoy if they were in Europe.

A recent visitor from Philadelphia, who formerly went to Carlsbad every year, said: "I do not see why anyone goes to Europe for medicinal waters. The water is as beneficial, and the scenery and surrounding country, the air and the opportunities for recreation are better; the hotels and all accommodations are much finer at French Lick-West Baden Springs"—and this gentleman is a native of Switzerland.

The splendidly wooded hills with the cool, invigorating air of these highlands where one can enjoy rambles in the depths of the forest, or rides and drives among the numerous bridle paths and roadways, afford pleasure for those who desire rest and quiet; while at the splendid and casinos one can have all the entertainment and pleasures possible at the most fashionable resorts.

Elks Building Committee Nearly Ready to Report.

The Doctors Working Hard on the Hospital Project—New Concerns.

AND OTHER NEWS OF INTEREST

Last night the committee appointed from the county medical society to adopt some measure to arouse interest in the vote for the $25,000 bond issue for a new city hospital, met very encouraging results. The committee will draft resolutions or such papers necessary to scatter about the city just before election to help the cause along. The doctors think the city is in need of a new city hospital more than anything else and are working hard to see the vote on the bond issue carried through and the hospital built. They first brought the matter up about one year ago and had plans drawn to have the building erected, but were delayed by the vote which had to be taken on a regular election day.

The street committee of the general council yesterday afternoon met and discussed the ordinance to dispose of a franchise for a street car line extension out Twelfth street which is desired by the Paducah company for extending its tracks to Rowland town instead of going out Bernheim Avenue as now. The company desires to retain the latter right of way, and on this question the boards have not yet agreed. The permission to extend the tracks out Twelfth street will probably be given, but the Bernheim Avenue franchise will possibly be declared forfeited. The franchise ordinance will come up at the next meeting of the boards.

The work of placing down the new suction pipe of the water company in the river opposite the city is progressing under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Falcon, of Chicago, a diver and sub-marine worker of national reputation who finished work at Metropolis a few days ago. Mr. Falcon has taken up much of the old pipe and when the old joints are all taken up the several car loads of new pipe will be laid.

Dr. H. P. Stewart, Dr. H. P. Sights and Dr. B. B. Griffith, a committee from the Paducah Medical society, to take steps toward securing a new city hospital, met last night at the office of Dr. Sights and decided to prepare an appeal to the people to vote for the bond issue of which $5,000 will be devoted to a hospital, which will be put before them in November. The appeal will be prepared and published in a few days.

It is probable the new picture frame factory will be in operation before December 1st. Messrs. Kirkland Bars, of the Rex company, Chicago, are now here signing up all the necessary documents and preparing to have the factory building, at the old Clements mill, overhauled and improved. They expect to complete the preliminary work by tonight and have the active work will begin at once.

The plan for the Elks proposed new building have been completed but the building committee is not yet ready to make a report to the lodge. Captain B. B. Davis, the architect, is now out of the city, and it is hoped by the next meeting of the lodge, next Thursday a week, to have a report ready. The building will be one of the finest in the city, and it is hoped to begin it next spring.

The reconstruction of Clark's River Bridge will be completed by the end of next week from present indications. Mr. Sinnott, of Nashville, has the contract, and the work has been progressing well. The opening of the bridge will be hailed with delight, as it has been closed for several weeks now. The repairs will cost the county about $1,200.

The fill in Mechanicsburg, known as the tan yard fill, is being widened twelve feet. The high stages of the river do great damage to this fill, and result in constant complaint from the south side. Street Inspector Eaker will complete the work as soon as possible.

The Seacoast Mineral company may be in operation by the middle of next week. Mr. L. O. Garrett has a force of men up Tennessee river getting a big supply of ore and will start the concern as soon as the ore arrives.

HAYES' BEECHWOOD EMULSO-HYPO WITH IRON

Makes Fat, Strength, Blood, Bone and Muscle.

If you are tired, broken down, despondent, worn out, pale, losing flesh, have no energy, don't feel like arising in the morning for the day's work, you should take a bottle of this wonderful medicine.

Gentlemen: It affords me no little pleasure to testify to the wonderful properties of Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron as it saved my life when the physicians said that I could not get well. After taking six or eight bottles I weighed 30 pounds. That has been ten years and I am still living in fine health. Wishing you success in its sale, I am yours truly, FRED S. DAWSON.

Gentlemen: Having used Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron I cannot commend it too highly to others as a tonic flesh builder and to give strength, blood and muscle. It is superior to any preparation of which I have any knowledge. I take pleasure in recommending it. Yours truly, R. W. NEWSON, Pastor M. E. Church, South.

Read what the editor of the Southerner, Okolona, Miss., says: Shoffner-Hayes Medicine Co., Paducah, Ky. In 1901 my mother commenced taking Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, when the doctors said her lungs were so badly involved that she would not likely survive but a few weeks. It improved her so rapidly that she was soon in good health for one of her years. I wish you the success you deserve with your Beechwood Emulso-Hypo. Yours truly, AARON G. DAVIS.

Suffered six years with a cough that threatened Consumption. Entirely cured by Beechwood Emulso-Hypo: MAYFIELD, Ky., May 20, 1901.

Shoffner-Hayes Medicine Co., Paducah, Ky. Dear Sirs: I suffered for six years with a cough that threatened Consumption. This spring I took six bottles of Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo and it cured my cough, and I think I am entirely well. Yours truly, MRS. W. H. STEWART.

SPECIAL STAMPS.

WILL BE PUT ON SALE THE DAY THE EXPOSITION OPENS.

A special dispatch from Washington states that the matter of a special issue of stamps for the world's fair has been taken up by the postoffice department, and assurances have been received from Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden that the stamps will be printed.

The issue will probably consist of four stamps of 1, 2, 3 and 4-cent denominations. Simultaneously with the opening of the exposition the stamps will be put on sale at all post-offices throughout the United States. It is thought by world's fair officials that this will be of inestimable value as means of advertising the exposition.

As yet the department has reached no decision as to designs for the stamps, but is now considering several suggestions.

JILTED LOVER.

KILLS FORMER SWEETHEART AND THEN ATTEMPTS TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

Bessemer, Mich., Sept. 24.—Annie Wozensk, aged twenty-four, was shot and instantly killed last night by Ed. Mileski, her former fiance, in front of her mother's home. Mileski then shot himself in the abdomen, and his recovery is doubtful. The girl had been visiting in Ironwood, and Mileski had gone there to endeavor to settle a quarrel that separated them a year ago. The couple came here together on the train and quarreled, it is said while en route. When they left the train, the girl dodged around a water tank to escape Mileski, but he followed her and shot her on her mother's doorstep.

COLD IN DEATH.

BODIES OF MAN AND WOMAN FOUND IN A VACANT LOT.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—The bodies of a well dressed woman about 20 years old, and a man, apparently 30, were found in a vacant lot in a fashionable residence portion of the South Side early today. A revolver clutched in the dead man's hand, a bullet from which had passed through the woman's lung, and two bullet wounds in the man's neck lead the police to believe it a case of murder and suicide. The names "Laurie" and "Sherman" on the woman's clothing and the initials "D. O. R." on the man's linen are the only identifying marks upon the bodies.

MEETING OF RED MEN.—Ten of the class of "palefaces" to be taken into the Red Men were initiated last night and others will follow Friday night at the regular meeting. Those initiated last evening are: Messrs. W. B. Smith, Henry Lehnhard, George S. Beard, W. H. Ripley, Young Taylor, Edward Loftin, Edward Thurman, H. V. Sherrill, David Kennedy and Eugene Graves.
